CONFERENCE & BUSINESS EVENTS - VALUE

Conference and business events support the wider tourism industry, both in terms of business revenue streams and through supporting jobs across a number of sectors.

In 2018, Marketing Manchester commissioned an update to the Conference Value & Volume study, to report on 2017 activity. It identified that:

- o the value of the sector to Greater Manchester was £904m (£862m from core activity and £42m from leisure extensions).
- o the sector was estimated to support 22,000 direct jobs within Greater Manchester, through its core activity, and 35,100 jobs when including the indirect jobs in the supply chain, some of which will be based in Greater Manchester, some outside. Leisure extensions support a further 1,600 jobs (1,000 being direct jobs).
- o the average value of a 'day' delegate (per trip) was £93, considering that a day delegate can be attending multiple days, whilst the average value of a staying delegate was £321 (per trip).
- o 55% of Greater Manchester's economic impact is generated by venues within the city centre, 28% by association business, 53% from bookings from outside the Northwest, and 74% by staying delegates.

LEISURE VISITS – VALUE PER HEAD

A range of visitor motivations, matched with Greater Manchester's product offer, supports the number of leisure visits made to Greater Manchester each year.

Marketing Manchester commissioned its latest detailed research into the leisure visitor market in 2023, with support from partners, Transport for Greater Manchester and Manchester Accommodation Business Improvement District through the Greater Manchester Leisure Visitors Survey. The survey provided a range of intelligence on the market to include the following update to visitor spend:

- o A day visitor spent an average of £78.
- o A staying visitor spent an average of £237, per person per day, including accommodation.
- o Domestic visitors spent an average of £133 whereas overseas visitors spent £259, nearly twice as much.
- o New visitors spent £156 on average compared to repeat visitors at £144.

Visitor spend refers to spending in shops, restaurants, entertainment venues, at attractions, within visitor accommodation and on local transport within the destination. It is significantly influenced by the average length of stay and the opportunity to undertake additional activities leading to additional spend.

DOMESTIC VISITS - BENCHMARKING

STAYING VISITS

VisitEngland undertakes the Great Britain Tourism Survey that enables destinations to benchmark the activity within the domestic staying visits market in a consistent methodology.

The latest post-pandemic dataset shows that there is an estimated 5.7m domestic staying visits annually to Greater Manchester, behind only Greater London (15.6m). This is followed by West Midlands (4.3m), Devon (4.1m) and Cornwall (4.0m).

The estimated spend (in £bn) for Greater Manchester is £1.7bn, also behind only Greater London (£5.0bn). Following Manchester is Cornwall (£1.3bn), Devon (£1.2bn) and West Midlands (£0.9bn).

Greater Manchester had the fourth highest estimated bednights (12.7m), behind Greater London (37.6m), Cornwall (14.7m) and Devon (14.4m).

There is an estimated 49.1m domestic tourism day visits to Greater Manchester, behind only Greater London (193.2m). This is followed by West Midlands (40.2m), Kent (34.5m) and Hampshire (33.1m).

VISITOR PROFILE – LEISURE VISITS

Marketing Manchester commissioned the Greater Manchester Leisure Visitor Survey 2023, working with partners; Transport for Greater Manchester and Manchester Accommodation Business Improvement District, to provide an updated intelligence base on Greater Manchester's leisure visitor market. The findings showed the following visitor profile:

- The geographic markets from within the UK generating the highest levels of visitors were the Northwest (35%), followed by; Yorkshire and Humber (27%), the North East (13%), West Midlands (9%), East Midlands (7%), Greater London (4%), Eastern England and Scotland (2%) and South East, Wales, South West and Northern Ireland each generated 1%.
- Greater London (24%) and East Midlands (17%) made up the majority of staying visitors from the UK followed by West Midlands (10%), Yorkshire and Humber (9%), Scotland (7%), North East, South East and Wales at 6% and the North West and South West at 5%.
- Average group size was 2.71 people with 32% of groups including children under the age of 16. 37% travelled with family groups, 22% travelled with friends, 19% were travelling alone, and the same amount with a partner, as part of a couple.
- Overall, 86% of groups were from the UK, and 14% from overseas. 77% were day visitors, and 23% were staying overnight. 34% of visitors hadn't visited before for leisure purposes, whilst 66% had visited before for leisure.
- 70% of staying visitors chose hotels, 18% serviced apartments, 6% were staying with friends or relatives, and 5% were staying in a guesthouse, inn or B&B.

- The average length of stay was 2.96 nights, rising to 3.25 nights for new visitors and decreasing to 2.55 nights for repeat visitors. 1.79 nights for domestic visitors and 4.55 nights for visitors from overseas.

THE LEISURE VISITOR – THE VISITOR EXPERIENCE

SOURCES OF INFORMATION USED

The Greater Manchester Leisure Visitors Survey 2023 looked into the sources of information used by visitors to inform their trip. The sources that visitors were more likely to use were:

- Website/social media of place visiting (45%)
- Recommendation/connection with friends or family (30%)
- Visit Manchester website and channels (25%)
- Manchester Visitor Information Centre (23%)
- City Hosts (10%)
- Booking platforms (8%)
- Online review platforms (7%)
- Books, guidebooks, newspapers or magazines (6%)

Staying visitors, and overseas visitors, used all information sources more than other visitor groups and almost half of staying and overseas visitors used information provided by their friends and relatives.

First time visitors were more likely to use information from Visit Manchester (45%), recommendations from friends and family (44%), and Manchester Visitor Information Centre (44%).

The use of Visit Manchester and Manchester Visitor Information Centre doubled for staying visitors (51% and 44%) and were even more important to overseas visitors (63% used Visit Manchester and 60% Manchester Visitor Information Centre).

City Hosts were also more important to overseas visitors, as a third (33%) used them as a source of information during their visit. City Hosts were also used more by staying visitors, compared to average, with 23% going to them for information.

ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN

Marketing Manchester commissioned the Greater Manchester Leisure Visitor Survey 2023, working with partners Transport for Greater Manchester and Manchester Accommodation Business Improvement District, to provide an updated intelligence base on Greater Manchester's leisure visitor market. The findings showed the following:

- More than half of all visitors to Greater Manchester ate out during their visit (59%). 56% visited a museum or gallery and 49% visited a historical site or building, while 44% went shopping.
- There were higher proportions of people visiting historical sites compared to 2018 (49%, up from 25%). More people in 2023 also went to the theatre, a festival or event, or on an organised tour or walk (17%).
- Three quarters of all staying visitors ate out and went to a museum or gallery. 68% visited a historical site or building (compared to 49% overall) and 62% went shopping (44% overall). A third of all staying visitors went to the theatre, 30% took an organised tour or walk, 28% attended a festival or event, 26% attended a sports fixture or event and almost a quarter (23%) visited bars and clubs.
- 87% of overseas visitors visited a museum or art gallery (compared to 56% overall). Around three quarters ate out and visited a historical site or building (75% and 77%) and two thirds (66%) went shopping (44% overall). 43% of overseas visitors took an organised tour or walk (compared to 17% overall). 12% attended a live music event (5% overall).
- 71% of groups making their first leisure visit to Greater Manchester visited a museum or art gallery and two thirds ate out (67%). 64% visited a historical site or building and 55% went shopping. Almost a quarter (24%) attended a theatre show and a guided tour or walk.

Visitors staying longer were more likely to undertake more activities and therefore the average length of stay plays a significant factor in motivations as well as visitor type.

SATISFACTION & LIKELIHOOD TO RETURN

One of the targets within the Greater Manchester Strategy for the Visitor Economy is around visitor satisfaction and this is measured through The Greater Manchester Leisure Visitors Survey.

Visitors were asked to rate Greater Manchester as a leisure destination out of 5 with 5 being the highest possible score. The latest visitor survey that gained feedback during 2023 showed an average score of 4.52, up from 4.47 in 2018. Over half (54%) rating their visit as 'excellent' (up on 51% in 2018), and another 44% rating their visit as 'good'.

Higher average satisfaction scores were received from staying visitors, overseas visitors or those visiting for leisure for the first time, compared to day visitors, domestic visitors and those that have visited before for leisure.

Ratings were also gained for individual elements of the trip/destination and the following positive* ratings were received:

- eating offer (98%)
- overall welcome and service received (97%)
- cultural offer (95%)
- shopping offer (94%)
- range and quality of visitor attractions (94%)
- public spaces (92%)
- signage for getting around on foot (91%)
- feeling of safety (87%)
- overall cleanliness (87%)
- public transport – services and routes (73%)
- public transport – value for money (72%)

*Positive rating: 'excellent' and 'good' scores combined.

The most improved rating received in 2013, on 2018 feedback, was received for overall cleanliness and signage for getting around on foot. These were followed by the shopping offer and overall welcome and service received which also scored higher in the latest 2023 survey than in 2018.

Visitors were asked a net promoter score (NPS) question about how likely they would be to recommend Greater Manchester to a friend, family member, or colleague. Greater Manchester as a place to visit has just 1% detractors, 46% neutrals, and 54% promoters. This results in a strong NPS score of 53 (out of a maximum 100), and with a score of over 50 being considered as excellent.

Visitors were asked how likely they were to make a future leisure visit to Greater Manchester in the next two years. 82% said this was very likely, and another 17% said it was likely – in total 99% said that a future leisure visit to Greater Manchester was likely for them in the next two years.
